

Remote Desktop Keyboard Shortcuts for Windows

Remote Desktop Connection is a useful feature in Windows that allows users to connect to a remote computer and access its desktop, applications, and files. To enhance productivity and efficiency while using Remote Desktop, it is important to be familiar with the keyboard shortcuts available. This article aims to provide a comprehensive list of keyboard shortcuts for Remote Desktop Connection in the Windows environment.

Examples:

1. Ctrl + Alt + Break: Toggle between full-screen and windowed mode.
2. Ctrl + Alt + Pause: Toggle between full-screen and windowed mode.
3. Alt + Page Up: Switch between programs in the remote desktop session, from left to right.
4. Alt + Page Down: Switch between programs in the remote desktop session, from right to left.
5. Alt + Insert: Cycle through the programs in the order they were started.
6. Alt + Home: Display the Start menu.
7. Ctrl + Alt + End: Open the Windows Security dialog box.
8. Ctrl + Alt + Plus (+): Minimize the remote desktop window.
9. Ctrl + Alt + Minus (-): Restore the remote desktop window.
10. Ctrl + Alt + Right Arrow: Switch between programs in the remote desktop session, from left to right.
11. Ctrl + Alt + Left Arrow: Switch between programs in the remote desktop session, from right to left.
12. Ctrl + Alt + Up Arrow: When in full-screen mode, switch the client computer between a window and a full-screen.
13. Ctrl + Alt + Left Mouse Button: Press and hold the left mouse button while dragging the window to move it across screens.